Activity 7

Two friends, different breakfast

Betty lives in Montreal with her best friend, Pam. They both study Medicine. They always have breakfast at home before going to school. Betty is a vegetarian, so she has just some orange juice, fruit, and a cup of tea. Pam eats a complete breakfast: she usually has two scrambled eggs with some bacon, beans, two sausages, a small plate of fruit with some yogurt and cereal, a piece of bread, jam, and a cup of coffee.

Betty has a salad and a lot of water for lunch while Pam eats a turkey sandwich, French fries, and a little soda. They have a sweet tooth, so they often bring a few candies in their backpacks.

Their days are always too busy, so they can hardly ever go to the supermarket to buy their supplies. When they have too much work, they usually ask Betty's boyfriend, Carl, to buy them for them.

This morning, Betty and Pam opened their fridge and noticed they urgently needed: some fruit, especially bananas and apples; a little milk, some eggs, and some meat, a few sausages, two cartons of orange juice, a little chicken or fish, some soda and water, and some bread. They also noticed they had no ice cream and a little ham.

They gave Carl a shopping list but he forgot to bring all the food items. He didn't buy the soda, the sausages and he also forgot to buy the milk. Pam is not going to be happy at all!
